

Panel Representing The Goddess Hera, Directoire Period Work Signed By Jean Louis Van Geel

3 650 EUR

Signature : Jean Louis Van Geel

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 84

Height : 36

Description

Rare and beautiful rectangular panel, finely carved representing the goddess Hera, sister and wife of Zeus or Juno in Ancient Rome, lying down with her attribute the peacock, holding in her right hand a circle formed by a snake (Ouroboros) surrounding two pierced hearts, her diadem and her scepter At her feet a helmeted Cupid holding a sword and shield, at the feet of the latter an owl and a treasure Beautiful and rare document, in very good condition, signed and dated Jean Louis Van Gell 1805 Jean Louis Van Geel 1787 1852 great Brabant sculptor, made numerous marble busts, work for prestigious royal patrons

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000