Description

Let yourself be charmed by the timeless elegance of this superb antique mirror, a true testament to the refinement of yesteryear. Its delicately gilded wooden and stucco frame brings a touch of prestige and authenticity, reminiscent of 19th century bourgeois interiors. The work of the frame, decorated with fine pearls and rounded moldings, enhances the depth of the mirror and gives it a noble and warm character. With its harmonious dimensions, it fits just as well above a fireplace as on a console or chest of drawers, instantly bringing brightness and character to your interior. Its glass, slightly patinated by time, as well as the few missing parts, reinforce its charm and authenticity, making it a unique decorative piece, ideal for a classic interior or a space with an eclectic style mixing old and
