Description

"India", a tribute to the year of India in France in 1990, this representation created by Caty Latham has never been reissued and remains rare and sought after by enthusiasts and collectors. The illustrator has let her vision express itself around Lakshmi, goddess of wealth. Lakshmi is often accompanied by various traditional symbols of good luck, such as peacocks, lotuses, elephants painted and decorated with garlands of flowers. In silk twill with hand-rolled edges, in a range of several tones of blue, purple, plum, green, gold....these colors are still very shimmering and well saturated. The supple and soft silk is a marker of its antiquity. Bears its title "India" centered at the bottom, the name of the Hermès house as well as its copyright at the bottom right. Dimensions: 88 x 90 cm In beautiful original
