Description

Let yourself be charmed by this magnificent dish of Asian origin, a treasure both elegant and versatile that illustrates the extraordinary craftsmanship of the XIXe century. Adorned with floral motifs and vibrant hues blending red and blue, this dish lends itself wonderfully to both decoration and serving, adding a note of exoticism and refinement to your home.

Each finely painted detail reflects the meticulousness and artistic sensibility of the period. The delicate flowers and colourful arabesques evoke the richness of Asian culture, while the quality of the porcelain gives this dish a unique and authentic character. In days gone by, such objects were as much a symbol of prestige as they were a functional accessory for enhancing
