Description

Introducing an exquisite antique Italian dresser from the first half of the 18th century, emblematic of the Louis XV period. This refined piece showcases the artistry of northern Italy's cabinet-making workshops, characterized by its elegant design and craftsmanship. Constructed from high-quality light solid walnut, the dresser is adorned with tasteful inlaid decorations that enhance its sides, reflecting a classic and geometric aesthetic. The unique front-facing drawers contribute to a fluid silhouette, making this dresser a standout piece in any setting. With three spacious drawers lined with traditional paper, it offers ample storage while maintaining an air of sophistication. The dresser is in excellent condition, although you may notice some signs of wear consistent with its age. The internal lining
