Description

Beautiful pair of miniatures on ivory finely made in a sober dark stained oak frame; these two fine round paintings on ivory (indecipherable signature), have all the charm of the 18th century French and represent two charming ladies of quality, one smaller with a Marie Antoinette hat and the other with curly hair and a pearl circlet. The frames are identical and offer a pair of charming quality wall decoration, in very good condition and of very beautiful and fine craftsmanship, these works were made in the 19th century, in the tradition and all the spirit of the century of Louis XV & Louis XVI. Attractive price given the pretty, clean and preserved pendant...
