Description

"Confidence". Calamine. France, circa 1900, after GRISARD, Désiré (1872- ?).

With manufacturer's stamp, titled and engraved name.

Figure in corrugated iron patinated in various tones, representing a young woman dressed in a tunic, raising a hand to her lips. On the base on which it rests, a plaque bears the title of the figure (Confidence) and, next to it, is engraved the name of the artist who inspired this work. Désiré Grisard was a French artist born in 1872, well known for his works in the modernist or Art Nouveau style, and he produced a series of truly striking figures. -
