Description

COD 10976 Antique painting from the second half of the 17th century. Oil on canvas artwork depicting an allegorical subject from the Rudolphine school, a game of cherubs with wild game, of excellent pictorial quality. The Rudolphine school, also known as the Prague school, refers to that group of artists working at the court of Rudolf II of Habsburg. Note the quality in the creation of the complexion, the still life and the masterful use of the chiaroscuro technique to create depth and volume of the subjects. Painting that develops horizontally, of nice size and pleasant decor. Artwork that has undergone a conservative restoration with relining, replacement of the frame and restoration of color in some places (see photo). Painting that is part of a pair (see photo and ask for the price of
