Description

Art Deco lamp base in Baccarat opaline.

Lamp created by Georges Dunaime in 1925.
White opal crystal (or opaline) decorated with stylized flowers on the upper part and hollow lines on the lower part.
Georges Dunaime, decorator and glassmaker, produced works in different fields, many of which were presented at the International Exhibition of Decorative Arts in Paris in 1925: lighting fixtures combining glass and metal, vases and cups in Baccarat crystal... He also worked at the Sèvres Porcelain Factory.
Model listed in the Baccarat catalogue for the 1925 International Exhibition of Decorative Arts.
A copy of this lamp can be seen at the Baccarat Museum in Paris.
