Description

Large jug or ewer in Chinese porcelain from Canton, 19th century. Very interesting piece due to its size, height 41 cm, and its pictorial qualities with its various animated scenes. Originally a rare object, shaped pieces are rarer than vases, and even rarer on the current market, few have come down to us. Excellent general condition of the structure as well as the patina which has kept all its shine. In summary, a beautiful collector's or decorative piece. Possibility of sending to France and around the world by secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
