Pair Of Colored Boulle Marquetry Planters - 19th Century

8 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marquetry

Description

Pair of 19th century planters, made in colored Boulle marquetry. These exceptional pieces rest on elegantly curved feet decorated with refined inlays and brass fillets. The finely crafted decoration features floral and arabesque motifs highlighted in bright colors, contrasting with the ebony and gilded brass elements. The gilded bronze mount enriches these planters with appliques in the shape of mascarons and volutes, adding a majestic and sophisticated touch. The interior is designed to accommodate plants or floral arrangements, surrounded by an openwork brass gallery that accentuates their refinement. These planters embody the know-how of 19th century cabinetmaking, inspired by the style of Charles Boulle, and demonstrate a pronounced taste for luxury and elegance. A rare and precious
