Description

Superb Art Deco period pedestal desk; entirely veneered in shaded walnut, this desk is composed as follows: three drawers on the left side, a door revealing shelves on the right side as well as a drawer in the belt. The top is covered with original glass, inscribed in a groove so as not to hinder writing and work but above all to protect it due to the butterfly wing veneer (see photographs) of very high quality. Note, aluminum handles and original keys.
