Description

Mediterranean landscape, gouache on paper by Georges de Feure

Georges de Feure, born Georges Joseph van Sluijters, was a Belgian-Dutch artist born in Paris in 1868. After an incomplete training at the Amsterdam Beaux-Arts, he settled in Montmartre in 1889, where he rubbed shoulders with the most prominent artists. Starting out as a poster artist, he expanded his art into multiple media, from gouache to cabinetmaking, especially through his collaboration with Siegfried Bing's Art Nouveau gallery.

A true virtuoso, his creativity left a lasting mark on Symbolism and Art Nouveau.

Frame dimensions: 46.6x56.6
