Description

This watercolor depicts a peaceful scene in Cliousclat, a village in the Drôme known for its pottery tradition. The composition highlights a sunny terrace where a cat rests, while a female silhouette emerges in the shade of the buildings. In the background, a hilly landscape punctuated by cypress trees and Mediterranean vegetation evokes the gentleness of the south of France. The use of bright hues and simplified shapes illustrates the modernity of André Lhote's style, influenced by cubism and a synthetic approach to landscape.
