

Old Facade Panels Of A Dairy, Grocery Store.

3 500 EUR

Signature : Ateliers Benoist et fils

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Glass

Description

"Pair of Painted Panels for Shop Front Circa 1900" Rare pair of painted canvas panels mounted on glass, signed Benoist et Fils. Work from the end of the 19th or the beginning of the 20th century, probably intended for a cheese shop or a grocery store. They are presented in a wooden frame, ready to be installed. Height: 205 cm Width: 49 cm

Visit our website: setruk.com

The Ateliers Benoist et fils represent the largest part of French heritage in terms of decorations fixed under glass. Their work was carried out over three generations between the years 1860 and 1935. The company was made up of a fitter, a letter painter, an apprentice, a florist, a maroufleur, a landscaper, a gilder and a decorator. Other workshops worked like them in

Dealer

Setruk

Mobilier ancien de magasin de luxe

Mobile : 06 15 67 01 82

39 rue des Vignerons

Noyers-sur-Serein 89310

this field but also stopped their activity in the 1930s. Source, Lucienhelle.com