Description

Peru, Chançay kilns, late 19th century or possibly older, huaco with double handles and a rounded belly decorated on its upper part with geometric and zoomorphic patterns in shades of dark brown on a cream background. This very pretty terracotta pot, by its shape, its colors and the style of the patterns is characteristic of the productions of the Chançay culture. Height 24.5 cm. The scale indicator on the last photograph is a small model of lighter from a brand known to all. Good condition except for slight wear and very small chips around the top; nothing abnormal in relation to the age and without affecting the beautiful aesthetics of this piece. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 22 euros,
