Description

Elegant vintage dresser or table clock from 1938, crafted with a refined combination of bisque porcelain, gilded bronze, and marble.The finely chiseled gilded bronze structure holds a white enamel dial with Roman numerals, framed by decorative neoclassical-style scrolls. The polished marble base enhances both stability and sophistication.The central feature is the bisque porcelain sculpture, depicting a lady in flowing attire, gracefully seated with a dog in a relaxed pose. The bisque porcelain, known for its matte and velvety texture, highlights the delicate details of the face, hands, and drapery, showcasing the craftsmanship of the era.The clock case lid bears a handwritten signature, possibly J.D. Briesse or Briasse, along with the date 1938, suggesting a French origin for this exquisite piece. The clock
