Description

This oil on canvas is signed Louis Neillot (1898-1973), a French painter, belonging to the Fauvism movement. His work mainly includes still lifes, landscapes and nudes, as well as the flowers and trees of his garden in the Orchard. It is distinguished by the power of the colors, but also by a strong structure where the influence of Cézanne, whom he particularly admired, can be noted. The work has been restored and cleaned, note old restorations on the back (visible in the photos), patches were applied some time ago. However, the work is in good general condition, it has a rear frame of beautiful craftsmanship. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the work.
