Oil on canvas by Marcel METTENOHVEN (1891-1979) signed lower left In the foreground a character from behind, and in the background a Breton landscape Painter from Auray (Morbihan, Brittany) Essentially a landscape painter, inspired by Brittany, Marcel Mettenohven excels in the representation of the most diverse skies, in full movement, animated by white clouds with ample volutes set with blue. He translates these moving skies with impasto and a particularly vigorous expressive touch which reinforces the simplification of the forms and gives them intensity.
