Description

Mohamed Khiari is a self-taught artist gifted with immense talent and known and recognized in certain circles in France itself. He is very inspired by the Impressionist movement and by Fauvism. He has the genius to put light particularly at the heart of the issues of his painting and is characterized by the audacity of his colors. He draws his inspiration from scenes of daily life by imposing his suggestive, expressive and autonomous force. Each of his paintings delivers to us a world exploding with colors, light and joy of living. Very humble and of great generosity, he lives only for his art. Oil on panel signed lower right Size: 16 x 26 cm with original enca: 24 x 34 cm
