Description

Portrait of ancestors or family. Watercolor.
China. Early 20th century.
Painting depicting four richly dressed figures (two men and two women) seated on thrones or chairs dressed in rich fabrics, located in an interior, accompanied by two servants (small, at the front of the work), and with an altar containing several valuable pieces in the background of the composition. This type of work was very common in the oriental art of certain schools, in accordance with the value given to the ancestors of important families.
