Description

Magnificent Louis XVI style dressing table or powder table, opening on the front with two drawers, accompanied by a writing tablet in red Moroccan leather. Its delicately crafted iron gilding and its clean lines testify to the refinement of the period. The top is adorned with three flaps, which open to reveal three practical boxes, surmounted by an elegant framed mirror. The marquetry is finely crafted in a mixture of rosewood and violet wood, creating a perfect harmony between materials and colors.
