Description

France / 1850 / dinner table / pine, zinc / Rustic / Mid-centuryA rustic mid-century pine woode, table, made in France around 1850. This classic designed table has an overhanging robust zinc covered top and stands on 4 turned legs. This large, cozy dining room table is equipped with a drawer with a decorative ceramic knob on one side. The table is professionally restored and has beautiful patina on the wooden base and zinc top due to age and nice traces of old paint layers. The zinc layer is beautifully folded and welded. This elegantly crafted table is the perfect addition to any home or office space. The sturdy construction ensures durability. The zinc complements the warm wood nicely and provides an inviting contrast that enhances its overall charm. Whether you're hosting a dinner party or enjoying a quiet
