Description

Very beautiful portrait of a man in pastel. The great mastery of this technique by the artist who executed this portrait can give the impression of a gouache; here the pastel was applied in large flat areas, as if one wanted to give the impression of brushstrokes. The man represented on an almond green background is very realistic, the face is pleasant to look at, this painting gives off an interesting feeling of modernity. Original frame and glass, a signature at the bottom right to identify and a date, 1913 accompanied by a note "To my friend Jean". Please note: this painting is in very good general condition.
