Description

Louis XVI style half-moon console table in mahogany and mahogany veneer. Second half of the 20th century. White marble top with gray veining and wooden crotch top. Top and top edged with a brass gallery. Fluted baluster legs with brass rings and bronze shoes. It opens with a drawer in the belt (functional and equipped with its key). The latter as well as the rounded side faces are highlighted with a fine brass pearl molding. Beautiful overall appearance, note a more matte area in the central part of the wooden top. Some small local oxidation of the ornaments.
