

Pair Of Chalet Shutters

550 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 164cm

Width : 63,5cm

Depth : 5cm

Description

Pair of chalet shutters, cross-mounted, with beautiful diamond-shaped nailing, typical of Alpine art. Probably made of larch, a species renowned for its robustness and resistance to bad weather, dating from the late 19th or early 20th century. Their hardware is complete and original. The old patina gives the whole a warm, authentic charm. Additional photos upon request. Delivery possible upon quote. For any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
