Description

Vase made of multi-layered glass using the etching technique. The decorative motif consists of hydrangeas in a beautiful combination of purple and green colors on a light background. Nancy, Émile Gallé manufactory, Art Nouveau, early 20th century. Signature "Gallé". Height 35 cm. Good condition, a small repair on the spout and below a small crack visible. Compare: <https://www.sothebys.com/en/buy/auction/2019/design/emile-galle-hydrangea-vase> Émile Gallé's manufactory was famous for its first-class furniture and glassware. Gallé loved to walk in the wild woods and had his own small botanical garden. He hung signs above his workshop door: "Our roots are deep in the forest - on the banks of streams and among the moss".
