Description

A charming pair of candelabra in finely carved wood and finished with silver leaf. These candelabra are distinguished by their elegantly carved shaft, enriched with delicate grooves, and by the base supported by three feral feet. In the upper part, they are equipped with two supports, with the possibility of being electrified. Of fine workmanship and elegance, these candelabra are able to give a touch of antiquity and class to any environment. Tuscan manufacture of the neoclassical Louis XVI period, second half of the 18th century.
