Description

Superb and rare solid silver frame in the shape of a Croix de Guerre.The frame takes the form of the Croix de Guerre with its two crossed swords. The edges of the arms are highlighted with a white enamel border.In the center, the photo is highlighted by a silver-gilt border and a white enamel laurel frieze.The frame has a beautiful, thick black patina which, unusually for silver objects, suits it very well.A movable stand at the back allows the frame to be placed on its side.The photo is of a World War I infantry soldier wearing his Horizon Blue greatcoat and an Adrian helmet.The frame is hallmarked:. Boar's head for solid silver.. Illegible silversmith's mark: E? With a stem (?) as a mark.. ABC.GL in a circle."Deposited" in fullMagnificent work, very precious with the use of silver and enamel, which
