Description

Charming pair of double candlesticks in openwork bronze, chiseled, polished to a high quality from the Napoleon III period, electrified in the 20th century, without the passage of damaging wires, and can be used as originally as candlesticks... Practicality or modernism marries with ancient tradition... Beautiful elegance and resting on bases with turned bases in gray Ardennes marble, the slender arms with a pretty flight and the central body in a spinning top, shower foot, surmounted by a pine cone joining the two arms in all its elegance, the palmette motifs adorn the room, like the ornate bobêches, the arms with a beautiful whip stroke finely retouched, delicate ambient lighting thanks to its small pleated white silk lampshades with pale yellow braids topstitched with a silver chain,
