Description

Rare and beautiful lacquered wooden screen with black background made in the 19th century. It is composed of 6 panels decorated with mother-of-pearl, on the front traditional scenes of Chinese life are represented, depicting women in ancient ceremonial costumes. The figures accompanied by landscapes painted in the background, all surrounded by a frame with floral and geometric motifs, while the back with floral and bird motifs. To appreciate the artistic delicacy, original and singular, perfect for any environment. Oriental furniture, especially in recent years, is constantly expanding due to its very versatile character that can also be combined with other types of furniture. The item, as it is vintage, could present imperfections, signs of wear and the passage of time, even in the absence
