Description

Pair of Red Modern Italian Armchairs in Welded Construction by A. Spazzapan 2005
Pair of fantastic ruby red arm chairs welded together from fine metal rods by Anacleto Spazzapan. The shape is light-footed and elegant. The whole chair is extremely ornate, like a web of lightly woven structure. Smooth and curved stretches alternate, creating a unique seating object laid out like a work of art. The seating comfort is very pleasant. (This style is out of production) The artist Anacleto Spazzapan was born in Luino, Italy in 1943. His inspiration as network metal designer has been influenced by his work in Indonesia as archeologist - where he discovered a 3000 years old culture.
