Description

Empire walnut chest of drawers - Early 19th century. Splendid walnut chest of drawers with four drawers, the first drawer disappearing under the band of small dimensions, enriched by a frieze in carved and ebonized wood. Elegant ebonized ties on the side uprights, handles and escutcheons in chiseled bronze with a male effigy. The front support feet are in the shape of an inverted cup with maple fillet. The sides, being a single walnut board, have created small cracks over the years (visible in the photo), easily removed with putty. Piedmontese furniture of great charm, also suitable for a modern environment. Dimensions: width cm. 128 - depth cm. 53 - height cm. 93 Period: Empire (early 19th century)
