He then decided to settle in this region, which he made in 1946, by purchasing an old farmhouse, renovated over the years, the "Mas du Diable", located at the foot of Les Baux de Provence. He lived the last fifteen years of his life in Mouriès, a small Provençal village in the heart of the Alpilles, in a farmhouse that he had renovated. He died on May 6, 1995, at the age of 87.
