Description

Portrait of a cavalry officer wearing a breastplate covered by a blue coat with red facing, under his arm he holds a bicorne. Very colorful watercolor drawing from the L XV period. The very lively look of the officer makes the portrait very lively. The drawing is framed in a varnished cherrywood strip, slightly later. The drawing is protected by a window, which causes white reflections in certain photos. Shipping costs to France by Colissimo with tracking: 30 euros
