Double Wooden Comb - Late Egyptian Period - Archaeology

500 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 7,1

Width : 5

Description

Superb and rare double wooden comb. Egyptian work from the Late Period (-664 to -332). Good condition. Wear from use. One row is composed of fine teeth, the other has thicker and spaced teeth. 7.1 cm long 5 cm wide approximately The Louvre has a similar comb under the inventory number E 228 and is currently on deposit at the National Museum in Warsaw. Another is present at the Natural History Museum of Cherbourg under the number MEL 2006.0.241.

Dealer

Wulfila Antiquités
Haute époque - Archéologie - Curiosités
Tel : 06 23 13 04 02

5 rue de l'Hôtel de Ville
Réalmont 81120