Description

This engraving bears the edition number "53." It was framed after the 20th century.

Unfortunately, we note some rubbing, foxing on the engraving and in the margin, and some stains. However, the engraving remains in acceptable condition.

Please note: we left the protective glass on, which explains the reflections in some photos.

Sold unrestored and untouched.

For condition, please provide detailed photos.

Photos are an integral part of the description.
