The photographs have overall dimensions of 20.5 x 25.5 cm (slight variations) The Charterhouse of Pavia (located in the commune of Certosa di Pavia and giving it its Italian name) is a former monastery of Carthusian hermit monks. Located 8 km north of Pavia (Italy) and dating from the 14th century, it is the most important late Gothic monument in Italy. The Charterhouse occupied a special and original place on the edge of the Visconti Park to the north of the castle of Pavia, a park of which only a part remains today, the
