Description

Important ormolu torch, mounted as a lamp, of tripod form, with richly chased decoration of sphinxes with heads of young women wearing antique-style buns and garlands in their hair. The neck is adorned with a necklace of large pearls on a lace breastplate, and the body simulates that of an animal, resting on prominent hocks ending in claws. On each of the three sides is a stylized palmette simulating passementerie. Napoleon III period This torch is in perfect condition. Custom-made, pleated fabric shade.
