Description

Earrings in 375/°° rose gold (9 KT, clover hallmark) forming volutes arranged in spirals wrapping around an undulating leaf. These volutes are made of round section tubes, polished to a high gloss, in contrast with the leaf which has been mattified, and decorated with shiny veins. The movement produced by the spirals gives these earrings a very dynamic design, while the openwork work accentuates the airy effect of the volutes. Their suspension system, called "swan necks", makes them particularly easy to handle, to carry, and gives them a mobility conducive to capturing the light. Gross weight: 3.89 g
Condition: imperceptible micro-scratches
