Description

This Empire dressing table in blond cherry wood opens at the waist with a long concealed drawer. It is distinguished by its large pivoting mirror with a mitred frame. The mirror is supported by two cylindrical columns topped with spinning tops and adorned with chiseled bronze rings. The front uprights are placed on a concave plinth at the front, ending in wafer-shaped feet. These two columns are accompanied by ornate rings at the top and collars at the bottom. With its refined look, this timeless dressing table will easily fit into your home.
