Description

Enameled porcelain and etched glass box. 19th century. Oval box with an etched glass base and a hinged lid, the latter made by combining enamel and metal. The lower part presents a bucolic landscape, with a series of human figures and buildings, combining trees, lakes, and dry land. The scene in the upper part follows the same typology: a couple in an idealized rural landscape. - Size: 7.5x6x4.5 cm
