Description

Small Louis XVI bookcase opening with a large drawer at the top and two glass doors. The molded and recessed drawer is fitted with two bronze drop handles. The doors with mitred frames are three-quarter glazed and molded, with a panel at the bottom. The oval entrances are beaded and the lock is in working order. The interior reveals three adjustable shelves on racks. This small bookcase has projecting and canted uprights with wide stopped fluting. The whole rests on fluted spindle legs. The small dimensions of this refined piece of furniture will delight lovers of elegant and discreet furniture.
