Description

This magnificent bronze statue represents the famous Venus de Milo, goddess of love and beauty in Greek mythology. The bronze, which has spent many years in a garden, has an exceptional patina, testifying to its history and exposure to the elements. This unique patina gives it a timeless charm and remarkable visual depth. In addition to the large statue, a small miniature version is offered as a gift with the purchase of the main piece. This delicate replica captures all the details of the original, allowing the finesse of the work to be admired in a more intimate format. A perfect set for lovers of art and mythology, combining elegance and history.
