Description

We present these three pretty little ivory figurines, all signed underneath. These are three netsukes in perfect condition and date back to the 1920s at worst and at best to the beginning of the last century. These three figurines comply with current legislation because they predate the famous Washington Treaty of 1947 and were really applied from 1973. We certify that these statuettes correspond to these criteria. We do not detail. Weight 71 gr (E25)
