Description

Large open bookcase in Louis XVI-Neoclassical style in gray painted wood. The lower part in the form of a buffet opens with two doors revealing a shelf. The upper part has modular shelves to accommodate books or trinkets. The uprights are carved with rudentée columns and Corinthian capitals. Well-developed cornice pediment. The upper part rests on the buffet and the cornice rests on top, so it can be dismantled into 3 parts. The dimensions of this furniture are large, therefore delivery cannot be made by carrier, contact me with your location for a personalized quote. 19th century period.
