Description

Original composition and beautiful format, this young couple takes what they could save from the fire, dishes and blanket in a wooded landscape, in the background a burning house next to a chapel, but who started the fire? At first glance the subject seems dramatic, we nevertheless find a certain malice in the treatment of this work. Oil on canvas, key frame, 19th century period Gilded frame with some traces of wear. Dimensions with frame 125 x 109 cm. Two small reinforcements on the back of the canvas.
