Description

Elegant and majestic, this Louis XV style Carrara marble fireplace is a true work of art, a symbol of refinement and exceptional craftsmanship. Coming from a prestigious estate in Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat, this unique 20th-century piece perfectly embodies the timeless elegance and understated luxury of the French Riviera. Its white marble, enhanced by fine gray veins, highlights the extremely fine carving work. The richly carved pediment is adorned with delicately crafted floral decoration, while the harmoniously curved uprights feature elegant volutes typical of the Louis XV style. Its generous shelf, with its flowing lines, brings a touch of grace and balance to the whole, making it a central and prestigious element for any refined interior. The cast iron interior, adorned with fleur-de-lis motifs,
