Description

We are pleased to present this stunning bronze sculpture of a young woman's bust. Although the artist has not been identified, the piece is signed on the back. The sculpture captures the essence of a young woman dressed in simple clothing, her hair elegantly tied in a scarf, evoking a sense of humble origins, perhaps a peasant. However, her face radiates a strong character, complemented by a serene expression and subtle smile. This suggests that the artist sought to elevate the everyday figures of society, celebrating their beauty and dignity through art. The bust is not only stunning in its craftsmanship, but also enhances its visual appeal with a sophisticated black marble base. This base creates a beautiful contrast with the warm tones of the burnished bronze, adding depth and elegance to the overall
