Description

This charming mail holder, crafted from solid wood, was probably manufactured in France in the 20th century. Measuring 36cm wide and 25cm high, it offers an ideal format for holding letters, documents, or newspapers while adding a touch of rustic elegance to any interior. Its time-worn wood is a testament to quality traditional craftsmanship, where every detail reflects the care taken in its manufacture. The understated and functional design of this piece makes it both decorative and practical, perfect for an entrance, an office, or a vintage-style living room. This mail holder is much more than just an accessory; it is a discreet testament to the daily life of a bygone era, combining utility and aesthetics with charm and authenticity.
